

Now and Again

Peter Frampton

I believe there's a compass here
At the back of the mind
Where the past and the future
Meet for a moment in time

If you want I can show you
In a minute or two
I can draw your attention
To some people we knew

You think I won't recognize you babe
Just meet me under the sign
It's some time since we were together
It'll be fine

Now and again - now and again
I feel the tension
Now and again - so do you
Now and again - now and again
Sometimes we're scared to mention
Now and again - me and you

Maybe you still hear the echoes
As they make their escape
There was nothing so special here
We need time to debate

I offer no explanations
For those who remain
Just relive situations
About their wealth and their fame

You think I don't recognize you babe
Come on meet me under the sign
It's some time since we were together
It'll be fine

Now and again - now and again
I feel the tension
Now and again - so do you
Now and again - now and again
Sometimes we're scared to mention
Now and again - me and you

You think you won't recognize me babe
You can see me under the sign
It's some time since we've been together
I'm doing fine

Now and again - now and again
I feel the tension
Now and again - so do you
Now and again - now and again
Sometimes we're scared to mention
Now and again - me and you

Now and again - now and again

I feel the tension
Now and again - so do you
Now and again - now and again
Sometimes we're scared to mention
Now and again - now and again
