Indigo Eyes

Peter Murphy

Fire burning in a hill The lines are rocky rough Red angels wait to pick remains

The cindered shoulder Of confused men Separate from them, their awe

With gray desire He looks out mad His soft gray indigo eyes Indigo eyes, asking

His heaven is uncovered not A black tree blocks his way His way is skating round a dome His way is in dismay

The playmate sings
Like Orphee in some thunder world
Asking to be bathed in light
To be exemplified

Like Orphee in some thunder world Asking to be bathed in light To be exemplified

With gray desire He looks out mad His soft gray indigo eyes Indigo eyes

Saw his past He had dug for trust With blind infected hands

And wondered as the hurt bit hard Why the sacred weren't at hand Only when his ears were deaf To the angels light burst waves

Only when his ears were deaf Did life turn from fog to fog But not evil but estranged But not evil but estranged

Indigo eyes Indigo eyes Indigo eyes Indigo eyes

With gray desire He looks out mad His soft gray, indigo eyes Indigo eyes
