

Lost In You

Petula Clark

When the night feels so long
You're the heat that keeps me warm
When tears are falling
I am calm, you're here
And I am whole

Now and then I am humbled
The seasons change but I remain lost in you
Now and then you get insecure
My feelings will remain and I am lost in you

Lonely days have been and gone
Our hearts, they beat as one
In your arms, feels like home
You're the one, you're the one
You're the one

Now and then I am humbled
The seasons change but I remain lost in you
Now and then you get insecure
My feelings will remain and I am lost in you

Lost in you, lost in you

Now and then I am humbled
The seasons change but I remain lost in you
Now and then you get insecure
My feelings will remain and I am lost in you
