

You Are My Man

Pharao

Lucky days,
A wonderful time, no-one heart
I think of you, soft and warm
Come on and hold me in your arms
When I'm lone you pick me up
I'm so glad that we are two
I wanna look in the sky
Cause and the is so blue
You are the one, you are my man (you are my man)
You are the one, my everything (my everything)
You are the one, you are my man (you are my man)
You are the one, my everything (my everything)
My everything
Away from all, I've been so long
And I pretend this is the end
I think of you, you hold me tight
When there is dark you are my light
When I'm lone you pick me up
I'm so glad that we are two
I wanna look in the sky
Cause and the is so blue
You are my man
