

Emotion Mama

Phenomena

how am i supposed to feel touch me, is this real?
for once in my life
nearly found paradise

i've heard it all before how can i be sure
words can deceive
only fools believe

should love feel this way getting stronger every day?
my heart's an open door
oh - give me more

i knew from the start
i'd lose my heart

some things 'meant to be
it's all destiny

emotion mama
i can't sleep
am i in too deep?
emotion mama
she's all i'm thinking of
is this love?

so scared of letting go letting my feelings show it's too late now
we'll make it somehow

a spark into a flame made me believe again love's coming back
like it's never been gone

one shout to the heart
my world it falls apart try to pretend
here i go again

emotion mama
i can't sleep
am i in too deep?
emotion mama
she's all i'm thinking of
is this love?

play the game, no surprise you saw it in my eyes love's not what it means in my wildest dreams
