

Killing for the Thrill

Phenomena

you say i'm crazy
i'm insane
a freak a psycho
i'm deranged
you don't understand the thrills my addiction forever damned

chasing the demons
makes me fell alive
burning with passion
as innocence dies
faithless fallen
deaths my salvation
ssnctify me crucify me
life's my damnation

nothing taboo
fear's my temptation
the kill turns me on beyond imagination
emotions blind you driven on by hate
the clock's still ticking death's never late

i've got no conscience
feel no remorse
your shooting in the dark clutching at straws
lost your way
lost direction
slowly drowning, drowning
in deception

it's like a drug
feeds my disires
you stand and you watch
th bodies get higher
i'm still running wild
on the road to hell God's my witness
but he'll never tell

stop thinking logical
get into my mind
think like i think are you scared what you'll find look in the mirror
what do you see
there's just a scream
between you and me

turns me on gets me high

Blows my mind
takes me higher
