

So Near so Far

Phenomena

you're a burning rose
an island of stone
i am just a man
lost and alone
look through the tears
as two worlds collide
stand like a rock
so empty inside

never gave yourself
so afraid to fall
lost in emotion
never loved at all
you're like winter
a cold dark night
they say loneliness
is some times for life

time to stop pretending and face the truth
can't hide my feelings
i'm in love with you
still all the heartaches cut me like a knife
got to face my fears
start living my life

the silence hides
a broken heart
still the bitterness
tears you apart
maybe someday
in time you will learn just to be loved
and to be loved in return

looking back on memories brings only regret
i know it's over but you're so hard to forget you said that loves forever not a word, walked away so why am i still holding on for one more day

so near so far
so near so far
even love can find a way into your heart
