

Dormouse - An End

Phideaux

Dormouse, dormouse: Are you far away?
Just a word that you're okay

Dormouse, dormouse: How are you today?
You're alive and you escaped
You're alive and you escaped

Dormouse, dormouse: What have you seen?
You've been to London or what used to be

Dormouse, is it really not there?
The taste of sulfur in the acrid air
From a world laid bare

Dormouse, dormouse:
Have you lost your faith?
See Jesus' face in the nuclear waste
Jesus' face in the nuclear waste
Jesus' face...
