

Everywhere I Look

Phil Keaggy

Far beyond what eyes behold
There are places yet to be discovered.
Stories as of yet untold
Til their faces have become uncovered.

Everywhere I look You are.
Deep and wide, near and far.
Out beyond the furthest star,
Even then there you are.

Hidden deep within my heart
There are secrets yet to see the daylight.
Unseen in the falling dark
You are present even in my midnight.

Everywhere I look You are.
Deep and wide, near and far.
Out beyond the furthest star,
Even then there you are.
