

I Will Be There

Phil Keaggy

I will be there when you cry,
I will be there when you need me,
I will be there when you fall,
I will be there all the time.

There's a road stretching out
And it leads to your desired haven.
Don't look back and don't you fear
Cause I'll be there.

I will be there when you cry,
I will be there when you need me,
I will be there when you fall,
I will be there all the time.

When you feel like giving up
And you fall on your knees in desperation
There's a strength beyond compare
Cause I'll be there.

You can believe it's true, cause I'll be there
I'll never leave or desert you
Through trials and temptations, oh I will be there,
I'll be there through the darkness, just call me.

Your every heartbeat, well I give to you
And every breath you breath I give to you
And when you're weary and you can't go on
Just look up anywhere
Cause I'll be there. I'll be there.

I will be there, I will be there
Every time you need me.
When you fall, when you fall, and I'll pick you up.

On that road stretching out
And it leads to your desired haven
Don't look back and don't you fear
Cause I'll be there.

I've been on this road a long long time ago,
And I lead you now to your desired haven.
Don't look back, but do draw near
Cause I'll be here, yes I'll be here,
You know I'll be here.
