

Real Life

Phil Keaggy

I had a dream I was running
Towards Your mountain.
Real life, this is real life.
And in my dream I wasn't alone.
Real life, this is real life.
Hundreds and thousands dressed in white.
I believe in You.
Say You will come and I'll be waiting for You.

Washed in the blood of the lamb.....
May you be strong
And always believing what's true.

Come away with me into the everlasting light,
I do believe in you
Now I do believe, I believe

Real life, this is real life.
