Erase

Phil Vassar

Bad move, baby I let you in You're a tattoo under my skin And I can't wash it off It's a permanent mark

I try to let it go, I try to chill
But still I feel I'm under your spell
Oh why the hell can't I just move on?
Your memory stays with me
I can't escape, I'm running in place
I can't erase you

My mind won't let you just disappear And I can't find any way out of here Cause you're stuck in my brain And it's a miserable pain

I'd give anything to be free from you and me Me and you what can I do?
Oh what can I do?
