Mercy Came Running

Phillips, Craig & Dean

Once there was a holy place Evidence of God's embrace And I can almost see mercy's face Pressed against the veil

Looking down with longing eyes Mercy must have realized That once His blood was sacrificed Freedom would prevail

And as the sky grew dark And the earth began to shake With justice no longer in the way

Mercy came running Like a prisoner set free Past all my failures To the point of my need When the sin that I carried Was all I could see And when I could not reach mercy Mercy came running to me

Once there was a broken heart Way too human from the start And all the years left you torn apart Hopeless and afraid

Walls I never meant to build Left this prisoner unfulfilled Freedom called but even still It seemed so far away

I was bound by the chains From the wages of my sin Just when I felt like giving in

Mercy came running Like a prisoner set free Past all my failures To the point of my need When the sin that I carried Was all I could see And when I could not reach mercy Mercy came running to me

Sometimes I still feel so far So far from where I really should be He gently calls to my heart Just to remind me

Mercy came running Like a prisoner set free Past all my failures To the point of my need When the sin that I carried Was all I could see And when I could not reach mercy Mercy came running

Mercy came running Like a prisoner set free Past all my failures To the point of my need When the sin that I carried Was all I could see And when I could not reach mercy Mercy came running

Mercy came running Like a prisoner set free Past all my failures To the point of my need When the sin that I carried Was all I could see And when I could not reach mercy Mercy came running
