

The Voice Of The Lord

Phillips, Craig & Dean

Whose voice is this that is over the water
That thunders and shakes the mountains and plains?
Whose voice is this that skips 'cross the desert?
The wilderness sings at the sound of Your name

Whose voice is full of wonder?
And majesty untold
Whose voice is this that is calling the nation
To rise up and praise You with great shouts of joy?

And whose voice is this that has called me from darkness
And chose me before the foundation was laid?
Whose voice is this that calls me beloved
And tells me I'm free and my debt has been paid?

Whose voice is full of wonder?
And majesty untold
(Majesty untold)
And whose voice is this that is calling His children
To rise up and praise Him with great shouts of joy?

The voice of the Lord is calling His children
(The voice of the Lord)
The voice of the Lord is shaking the earth
The voice of the Lord echoes like thunder
(The voice of the Lord)
Is awesome in glory
Hear, hear the voice of the Lord, yeah, yeah

Let those who have an end
Hear His mighty voice
His voice is deep inside my soul

The voice of the Lord is calling His children
(The voice of the Lord)
The voice of the Lord is shaking the earth
The voice of the Lord echoes like thunder
(The voice of the Lord)
Is awesome in glory, hear

The voice of the Lord is calling His children
(The voice of the Lord)
The voice of the Lord is shaking the earth
The voice of the Lord echoes like thunder
(The voice of the Lord)
Is awesome in glory
Hear, hear the voice of the Lord
Hear, hear the voice of the Lord, yeah, yeah
