

Bye Bye Arizona

Phoenix Effect

Hey lil'one, where d'you think you're running off to?
You don't know the world from the color of your eyes 'Cos maybe, maybe, maybe, maybe You don't know the world from the pocket on your side

Hello sister, wind on land, would you keep her safe upon your hand?
It's so easy get lost in the night, just a kiss and it's bye bye Arizona

Where did you come from? Tell me where you goin'?
Acting like you think you know what you're sowing Go carefully, go careful, careful There ain't no easy rest where you go roaming

Hello brother, open wide, I need you there to take his side
'Cos it's easy to get lost in the night, just a kiss
and it's bye bye Arizona, oh
Bye bye Arizona

upon your hand?
It's so easy get lost in the night, just a kiss and it's bye bye...

'Cos it's easy to get lost in the night, just a kiss
and it's bye bye Arizona, oh
