

Never Enough

Picture

Break my back with hard labor.
Work my fingers to the bone.
Give it all for your pleasure.
But still you have a heart of stone.

For you I'm working like a dog.
So I can buy you the nicest things.
Take you out and spoiling you.
Still complain, that really stinks.

Give it all, but you put me down.
You make me feel, feel like a clown.

But it's never enough.
It's never enough.
I don't know what to do.
But I'm still loving you.
It's never enough.

But it's never enough.
It's never enough.
I don't know what to do.
But I'm still loving you.
It's never enough.

But it's never enough.
It's never enough.
I don't know what to do.
But I'm still loving you.
It's never enough.

Give it all, but you put me down.
You make me feel, feel like a clown.

But it's never enough.
It's never enough.
I don't know what to do.
But I'm still loving you.
It's never enough.
