

No Place to Hide

Picture

Under the spotlight, we feel the heat.
Into the fire we go, feel the beat.
Tonight, we're gonna touch your soul.
Out of our minds, yes, we do it all.

No place, there is no place to hide.
Watch out , put your ears open wide.

We can see you, hiding behind your hands.
We can feel you, can you feel the power we send.

No place, there is no place to hide.
Watch out, put your ears open wide.

Out of our minds, we're going to squeeze your ears.
And in the end, you're all be in tears.

This is the night, let me see your hands
There are no others, no, we are your friends

No place, there is no place to hide.
Watch out, put your ears open wide.

Out of our minds, we're going to squeeze your ears.
And in the end, you're all be in tears.

Out of our minds, we're going to squeeze your ears.
And in the end, you're all be in tears.
No place to hide.
