

Wings

Picture

Lying, not telling you the truth they all are lying.
Lying ,it is a strange disease why lying.

You must find the inner angle of yourself.
You have the power to fly in to the sky.
Stormy winds of life will knock you down.
Let it come you know how to fly

What can you say.
What can you do.
To brake this chain.
oh oh oh

Lying, not telling you the truth they all are lying.
Lying, it is a strange disease , why lying.
You're hiding to show the world your pain, you're hiding.
You're crying but you cannot break this chain so your hiding.

You feel like a bird with broken wings.
Why do you crawl, you know how to fly.
No more anger no more hate and no more pain.
Spread your wings like an eagle in the sky.

What can you say.
What can you do.
To brake this chain.
oh oh oh

Flying, you have wings, you can fly!
Flying, like an Eagle in the sky, flying.

Wake up, your wings are coming back.
Spread your wings and fly away, yes now you're flying

You're released, there is no turning back,
Spread your wings and FLY!
