

King Of The Road

Piebald

Andy went back to school. He got sick of Newbury Comics.
Aaron still rides a lot, except now, now he's just fatter.
Alex took over for Alex Van Halen, after his major surgery.
Jon, well, he got married to Laura and I teach their kid in first grade.

Thought I saw you on the road last night.
I need to get my eyes checked.
Can't believe I love something as yellow as you.
"He's gone so deal with it man."
"Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back."

Weren't you parked at the station?
My mind is playing tricks on me.
Can't believe I love something as yellow as you.
"He's gone so deal with it man."
"Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back."

We left you in a Carolina.
I need to rub my eyes.
We keep your door like it's a postcard from you from camp.
Maybe we'll see you in a junkyard soon. Oh man I really hope not.
Can't believe I love something as yellow as you.
"He's gone so deal with it man."
"Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back."

Maybe you're in auto heaven.
Oh man I really hope so.
Can't believe I love something as yellow as you.
"He's gone so deal with it man."
"Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back."
"Wait, after all, he did get us across the world and back."
Hell, yeah.

Now it's all the same.
Now it's all the same.
Now it's all the same.
Now it's all the same.

[Children singing the Chorus of "Just A Simple Plan":]
Ready?
One, Two, Three, Four:
Just a simple plan to keep you awake
It's just a simple plan to keep you awake
No matter what I try, your eyeballs seem to hide...
