

Monolith

Pig Destroyer

Archaic bureaucracy doomed from the outset bloated and hedonistic invincible
and inert
a bedridden monolith
of uselessness
we lack the fortitude
to pull the plug unable to envision our lives
without it instead
we maintain
a two hundred year
vigil praying
for a miracle of some kind not realizing that every day of mourning is also a day of regression
social evolution
is neutralized
by antiqued tradition.
