

The Last Song

Pig Destroyer

This is the last song
I'll ever write
About your pale skin
In white light
How your eyes
Are two deep mines
Full of diamonds
I know what was
Cannot be again
Even the mighty sun
Must stagger to it's end
I thought I'd get over you
They said time heals all wounds
I guess they were wrong
It broke my heart
To sing the last song
In order to hold
You must be willing to lose
I admire who you've become
I only want the best for you
