

Toleration or Truth

PIG

I heard you breaking the news, every word
And all that you've done and what you've become You're so shiny and new, like a God in denial
Take it to trial ,we like it slow
We've got the gaudiest show
I'll take your submission
And give you permission
To take a chance, step back, advance
Come on, it's time to take your pick now
See the holiest trick?
Suckle the sick with a drip, drip, sip, sip
And now you suck

You tolerate truth you can't believe in
You're down so low, you're not receiving
You call and cry and you collide
Original sin the immaculate lie

You tolerate truth you can't believe in
Liberate life, are you receiving?

Now you enjoy and you destroy
Every girl and every boy

I was listening to the songs and lovers
Locked an a tower way above us
Out of reach and out of range
Like picking pockets for the smallest change
I see you shatter, I want your head
The silver platter unseen and said
The single word I heard you're done
And now you are become the one

You tolerate truth you can't believe in
You're down so low, you're not receiving
You call and cry and you collide
Original sin the immaculate lie

You tolerate truth you can't believe in
Liberate life, are you receiving?
Now you enjoy and you destroy
Every girl and every boy
