Pillow Fight

Am7

I'm going down with the Sun, last breath taken

All around I feel fine even if I'm about to die

No more tears no more fears, no more screams no more if

No more smile no more life in my body on the ground

My soul is lost only memories cries of freedom

When you spoke words of Love in my heart was only shadow

I'm still fine no more lies, no more cries, no more screaming

Stop the time show me how I can be the man you wanted

A

Shall be reborn all that hope you're my safe heaven and my home

G

And the world is going blind

I need a hand that will lead me to my place and to my friends

and finally I feel alive

All that I swore was broken and I'm sorry

Left to my thoughts, I dreamt of a new and different story

My pain grows as time flows and the boat is slowly drowning

Everyone tries to run but the fate is always hungry

I've never touched an angel in his glory

Feathers fell from her wings she remained all naked

Sitting here I could hear only heart gently beating

Stars were far in the sky and two bodies in the dark

Shall be reborn all that hope you're my safe heaven and my home

And the night is going blind

and finally I feel alive

Shall be reborn all that hope you're my safe heaven and my home

And the night is going blind

and finally I feel alive
