Soaked

Pinback

Toss it away
Into the water
Toss it away
Into the fire

Some minor thought fell from the sky Nobody wants that either Paper model plane glued to your spine Severing off your feelings

Toss it away
Into the water
Toss it away
Into the fire

It might've faded, you decide
Hell of a night
Bat of an eye
You started screaming blue murder, true
That's so you and you're soaked through

You took them all You closed the bar without me You chose the fall You took them all without me
