

Shattered

Pink Cream 69

freeze a second, hold the moment stop the hand of time just a word, a thought is spoken says my love was blind now I stand all alone and wonder why there's tears in my eyes it's a spell that I been under once again - don't know why listen up, you better not talk save your lies, I can't hear 'em no more

you shattered my heart
you shattered my soul
shattered my pride
met your goal
you shattered my heart
you shattered my soul
scattered pieces
you shattered my soul

Someday you were the one to count on,
You were friend and romance
All I hope is you burn your fingers When you need someone's hand

you shattered my soul
shattered my pride
you shattered my heart
scattered pieces

just shut up, go take a walk

shattered my pride
you shattered my heart
scattered pieces
