

Until I Wake

Pink Cream 69

i know another wrong won't make it right i know another drink won't keep my senses clean put a gun up to my head, might stop me for a while i know another shot could get me through the night

but i feel my anger, and i'm so unstable and i want to hold back, but i'm just not able so i found redemption in a long white bottle could it be i'm desperate? when it keeps me calm...

i need another way to get me loose i need another way to let my thoughts go free cantcha understand that i'm a complicated man ? i need another shot before i tie my noose

and i want to hold back, but i'm just not able
could it be i'm desperate? when it keeps me calm...

Until I wake, until i wake hey yeah.... it's my mind, yeah... it's my way, yeah and it comforts me, yes it comforts me But i never - felt at ease and i'm on my - bended knees and nothing can - stop me now cause i'm loaded...

could i learn my lesson? cantcha feel my anger break me, can't make me, believe me, yeah !!!

But I feel my anger, but i feel my anger but i feel my anger, i feel so alone...

and i want to hold back, but i'm just not able
could it be i'm desperate? when it keeps me calm...

Until I wake, until i wake...
