

Pipes and Pints

Pipes And Pints

Never did you listen to what I have to say, now its time to move along, forget the past away.
Life's to fucking short treasure what you have,
moneys not everything it only pays the bills.
Different characters separate control.

We are pipes and pints
Rebels music on the streets
We are pipes and pints
Spitting music into your face
We are pipes and pints
Unite the punks bad and ugly
We are pipes and pints
Pushing you to the limit.

Oblivious and blind looking the other way, why don't you wake the fuck up and make a stand today.
You don't like the way I look look inside and take another look for you I 'm just a drag in todays society.
