

She's the One

Pipes And Pints

February 28 at 1.33

lady secrecy came looking for me Tattooed skin looks like a diamond ring Her blue eyes killed and pulled me in Expect the unexpected
It always comes around
Unexpected came around

She's the one
Who puts a challenge to my life
She's the one
Who gives me new life
She's the one
I'm gonna treasure everyday
She's the one
Who believes in me
She's the one
Who stands strong with me
She's the one
I wanna live for everyday

Hate and love's connected as a bone
You can't disconnect what's growing on and on We both live a life in the core fast lane gotta slow down and catch the family train She's hated condemned by the ones who hate me Admired and worshipped by me

From here and on where moving on day by day Holding on getting strong by the words we say
Expect the unexpected
When you don't expected she's around
