

Not Even Married

Pissed Jeans

Aww relationship trouble
You tried so hard to avoid
And now you're out on your own again
Crying into the void
No one could understand it
Truly feel your pain
You're so deep and complex
Yeah your heart has been drained

So you're gonna have to move out
Box up all your things
How will you ever get over her?
It was so much more than a fling
I want to hear all about it
How it inspires your art
You thought you were gonna die, man
Yeah it tore you apart

But you were dating for a year

You kept your books separately
Wait, you only met her parents twice
And one of them doesn't count, it was a family party
You just rented that apartment
There wasn't even a loan to co-sign
No you're not even married
You never had any kids

Yeah you suffered such trauma
From a squeaky clean break
Already seeing someone else now
She doesn't care you're a flake
Acting like you've been tortured
Haven't slept for days
But I saw pics of you partying
So get out of my face
