

Irrational Anthem

Plain White T's

I remember wishing I was older.
Always something big around the corner.
But as the years go by I'm growing younger.
Open eye and head still filled with wonder,
Wonder.

Pledge allegiance, everybody stand up
This is our irrational anthem.
We don't care if they don't understand us
This is our irrational, irrational anthem.

Let your mind go anywhere it want's too.
Make your wildest wish, and watch it come true.
'Cause somehow, somewhere we forgot,
Cowboys, Indians, Astronauts.
All the dreams that we could not hold onto.
(Take them back)

(1, 2, 3, 4)
Pledge allegiance, everybody stand up
This is our irrational anthem.
We don't care if they don't understand us
This is our irrational, irrational anthem.

There's nothing worse then normal.
There's no fun in mundane.
While everyone else gets older,
I refuse to change.
Weak or strong, right or wrong.
Whose side are you on?

Pledge allegiance everybody stand up
This is our irrational anthem.
We don't care if they don't understand us
This is our irrational, irrational anthem.

Pledge allegiance everybody stand up
This is our irrational anthem.
We don't care if they don't understand us
This is our irrational, irrational anthem.
