

Pushin'

Plan B

And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin'

Your love is something I can't reach
Close to me you stay, holding out your hand
I can feel your heat
Be it off the wall, be right where you are

I keep on pushin', my love
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
Oh my love, oh my love
Oh my love, oh my love

Your love is like a paper cup
It's just not deep enough
Even though it seems so much
I can't help but touch
Even though it makes it worse
I keep pushin', pushin' through

I keep on pushin', my love
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
Oh my love, oh my love
Oh my love, oh my love

Every cloud has a silver lining
And I think I've found mine
What's meant to be is just a matter of time and
Good things come later down the line

Your love is something I can't beat
Your heart is like a game I just can't complete
So bittersweet, I can't win you over
No real defeat

And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pullin'
(I can't win you over)
And I keep on missin'
(No real defeat)
And I keep on tryin'
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pullin'
(I can't win you over)
And I keep on missin'
(No real defeat)
And I keep on tryin'

Every cloud has a silver lining

And I think I've found mine
What's meant to be is just a matter of time and
Good things come later down the line

And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
And I keep on pushin'
And I keep on pushin', my love
My love, my love, my love

Every cloud has a silver lining
(My love, my love, my love...)
And I think I've found mine
(My love, my love, my love...)
