

I'm checking out into the unexplored
Never better when your self assured
If a lifetime is all it takes
Then at night time I'll go insane

Feeling better when the walls come down
Only sorrow only thoughts to drown Superstition in the atmosphere but where's the peace of mind that once was here

Your whole life is in front of you
Live it up Live it up Live it up now
Can do whatever you wanna do
Live it up Live it up Live it up now

I'm checking out into another world
I'm breaking out while you're lost for words
Somewhere deep inside a fire burns
And I know that it inspires you

Nows the right time for disbelief
No more white whine and pain relief
Another morning in the after life
Can sell your soul only once or twice

Your whole life's in front of you
Live it up Live it up Live it up now
Can do whatever you wanna do
Live it up Live it up Live it up now

When all my chemistry is fading away
Then all my memories are waiting for me
No more illusions of a separate sphere
Only conclusions as to why we're here
