Plazma

Out of love
Out of heaven
I count my sins, crimes an' mistakes
Well, it could have been a happy-end story
Could have been a happy-end story
My old wound
Still bleeds and aches
I missed my cue
I'm at the mercy of you

Save my day and night
Save my hopeful light
Save my loving smile
At least for a while
Stay, forgive my crime
Save me one more time
Save me just for a while

Being drowned
In raging water
Pull me out
Throw me the rope
'Cause it's gotta be a happy-end story
Gotta be a happy-end story
Being drowned
I hope against hope
There's so much blue
Now I'm appealing to you

Save my day and night
Save my hopeful light
Save my loving smile
At least for a while
Stay my fall and death
Stay my mortal breath
Stay, forgive my crime
Just one more time

Save
My hopeful light
Save
My day and night

Save my day and night
Save my hopeful light
Save my loving smile
At least for a while
Stay my fall and death
Stay my mortal breath
Stay, forgive my crime
Just one more time
Save my day and night
Save my loving smile
At least for a while
