

Thursday

Plug in Stereo

You wore your heart on your sleeve, like a tree, where's the leaf?

'Cause you cared too much, about me.

We had it rough, growing up, but I had you and that was enough

You were a single mom, I bet that was tough

I never got to tell you despite those things that happened before you left and had to go

I love you and I know that goes unsaid, but I wanted to let you know

It's sad to say, that life goes on, cause I wish you would go on too

No chunk of change can take your place, so I miss you and I'll see you soon.

I wish that you could see me now, how I've grown up you'd be so proud

If you could watch me play, you'd cheer so loud

You taught me everything I know

I'll be my word, I'll keep playing shows

And I'll picture you, in the first row

I never got to tell you despite those things that happened before you left and had to go

I love you and I know that goes unsaid, but I wanted to let you know

It's sad to say, that life goes on, 'cause I wish you would go on too

No chunk of change can take your place, so I miss you and I'll see you soon.

I won't lie, my life has gotten tougher.

I ask why, did I have to lose my mother

I know for sure, I'd trade you for any other,

but I'll be alright knowing you don't have to suffer, anymore