Truth

Plug in Stereo

With every person comes a weakness
Some try to never let it show
Others fall to defeat with
Nothing but sad inside their souls

Now you've gotta stop running
You're only giving yourself hell
So try to look for the good in something
Look for the good in yourself

And let the truth
Be the truth
There's no use
Fighting the truth

Be strong and do yourself a favor
Get all the flaws out of your head
Don't let your troubles be your neighbors
You can learn to love to be alone instead

And let the truth
Be the truth
There's no use
Fighting the truth

You're flawless so don't dare fault
Regardless of words spread and taught to you

So let the truth
Be the truth
There's no use
Fighting the truth

Let the truth
Be the truth
There's no use
Fighting the truth
