

Human

Plumb

Oh, we're all human

How can I love you
When all I've got is hatred?
Why should you believe me
If all I do is fake it?
Can anyone hear me
When all I've got is noise?
And my opinion is
The loudest voice

We're all human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside
Oh, we're all human
Oh, we're all human

I don't wanna be wrong
But I'm not always right
My words aren't for killing you
They should bring you life
And lips are for speaking
The remedy
Like saying I love you
To my enemies

We're all human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside
We're all human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
Aching from the love we don't feel inside
Oh, we're all human
Oh, we're all human

Write it on our hearts so that we believe
Open up our eyes so that we can see
Put your hand in mine, skin to skin, we're all human
Write it on our hearts so that we believe
Open up our eyes so that we can see
Put your hand in mine, skin to skin, we're all human

We're all human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat
Even though it might be
We're all human
Our hatred is useless
We all have a heartbeat

Aching from the love we don't feel inside
Oh, we're all human
Oh, we're all human

Oh, we're all human
Oh, we're all human
