

Somebody Loves You

Plumb

She writes poetry
She plays the violin
She tries to play the part
Somehow she never wins
She grabs a stick of gum
After her cigarette
She puts on a smile
And tries to hide her mess

And makes herself a home in loneliness
And fixes her dress

Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Just the way you are
And I can't fix you
And I can't change you
But I can love you
Just the way you are
Just the way you are

She drives a rusted car
It's always out of gas
She paints her fingernails
Every shade of black
She makes mistakes
She makes them loud
And she tries so hard
Not to let me down

When will she just learn to love herself?
Oh really love herself

Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Just the way you are
And I can't fix you
And I can't change you
But I can love you
Just the way you are

I'm here, I'm not going anywhere
I'm scared you'll go too far
One tear can turn into an ocean of regret
So don't forget

Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Just the way you are
And I can't fix you
And I can't change you
But I can love you
Just the way you are

Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Just the way you are
And I can't fix you
No I can't change you
But I can love you
Just the way you are

Oh how I love you
Just the way you are
Just the way you are

Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you
Just the way you are
