

Is it normal is it normal
Is it just another day
Have they emptied out the rubbish
Have the kids gone out to play
Are you waiting while the bath fills up
Watching while they read the papers
Read the headlines over breakfast
Breadlines deadlines has the milk come
It is time to have a crisis
Is it safe to go out shopping
Crisis crisis panic buying
Water dripping on the carpet

Is it normal, is it normal
Is it just another day?

Are you waiting while the bath fills up
Watching while they read the papers
Have the shops ran out of rubbish
Is it time to have a crisis
Spill the beans and take your clothes off
Can you stand it if I touch you
Watching while they read the papers
Water dripping on the carpet
Can I say no, will he hit me
Plaster falling off the ceiling
Can you stand it if I touch you
Break the ice burn the house down

Is it normal, is it normal
Is it just another day

Is it safe to go out shopping
Leave the kids outside the toilet
Water dripping on the carpet
Leave the kids outside the local
Strangers tapping at the window
Is it time to have a crisis
Watching while they read the papers
Peel the onions, ask no questions
Hit the baby, stop it screaming
Can you stand it if I touch you
Break the ice and burn the house down

Normal Normal Crisis Crisis
Normal Normal Rape Crisis
Normal Crisis Normal Crisis
Crisis Murder Normal Normal

Is it normal, is this normal
Is it just another day?
