

Rings From Corona

Poison the Well

With everything I've dragged in venomous beings and all It's nice to think that everything falls into place but it doesn't, but it doesn't fall into
With everything I've dragged in
venomous beings and all
so guilty
so weak
so lost without you for now I know
so guilty
so weak
stop calling me
please keep calling me
open your mouth to see if it's the truth turn around so you can't see me say I miss you stop calling
keep calling
stop fucking calling me
