My bones
they break
my heart isn't worth the wait
don't rush I'm running late always something that gets in the way

Don't need saving
just a taste
Don't need anything
I feel safe
'coz we don't need saving
We never did
someone fetch a strecher
for the disco damaged kid

Just leave
I wish you well wasn't out fault
that the skyline fell couldn't breathe tried to speak
we kept on running with chains around our feet

Don't need saving
just a taste
Don't need anything
I feel safe
'coz we don't need saving
We never did
someone fetch a strecher
for the disco damaged kid

I have no words that I want to say I don't know myself that well these days
Don't need saving
just a taste
Don't need anything
I feel safe
'coz we don't need saving
We never did
for the disco damaged kid
