

Faces In The Water

Poni Hoax

Faces in the water
Every time to wash the dishes I turn on the tap
Traces of your faded face,
Every time I drown myself in the eyes of the cat

What would you say today?
Where would you play?
I just don't know
I just don't know, honey

Traces of your faded face,
There's a monkey in the attic that will share it's stash
Faces in the water,
You just fell too deep down the well to ever climb back

What would you say today?
Where would you play?
I just don't know
I just don't know, honey
