

Hurricane

Pooh

Hurricane blown my way thunder and lightning and clouds there's no turning back from all the wind and the rain.
Winds of change are comin thru ever since i looked at you i knew then and there that i was lost in your storm we were meant to come together like a raging hurricane can you feel the force of love about to explode.
Caught in a storm of love and it's no illusion it's got me hypnotized and it wont let go it's getting closer
and i can't hold on now here comes the cyclone
and it's much too strong now.
It feels so good to be high soaring away in the wind love take me somewhere where i can be free again.
Here it comes to take me and it wont be long now the winds of freedom hear them scream and rage now
it's getting closer
and it's much too strong now.
Hurricane blown in to mine
