

3 Seconds To Freedom

Pop Evil

You're everything I hate.
You're everything I love.
When everything that's right,
Comes falling from above.
You only wish you could erase,
The walls that hold you down.
Every second that is lost,
Another moment that is found.
Just save yourself, don't let it slip away.

Just save yourself tonight, stop the fight,
Cuz everything is over.
You think you got what it takes then get up, get up, get up.
If you want it, then I want it more.
C'mon, 3, 2, 1, we got 3 seconds to freedom.

I am the one who's singled out.
You're the reason I am up in arms.
If there's no turning back,
Then show me where to start.
Cuz you're still everything I hate,
You're everything I love.
Now who will save you?
Now who will save you now?
Don't let it slip away.

Just save yourself tonight, stop the fight,
Cuz everything is over.
You think you got what it takes then get up, get up, get up.
If you want it, then I want it more.
C'mon, 3, 2, 1, we got 3 seconds to...

Ain't no better time to hate then right now.
Don't let it slip away before the walls come down.
Save yourself tonight, we only get one shot.
We got 3 seconds to freedom.

Just save yourself tonight, stop the fight,
Cuz everything is over.
You think you got what it takes then get up, get up, get up.
If you want it, then I want it more
C'mon, 3, 2, 1. We got 3 seconds to...
C'mon, 3, 2, 1. We got 3 seconds to freedom.
