Inferno

Pop Evil

So here we are, I'm still broken
I am who I am, but I'm not chosen

So tell me life is a joke
Turn my flame into smoke
Am I broke?
I can't breathe in 'cause I'm beginning to choke
In the silence, I scream
It's like I'm living a dream
I can't wake up 'cause it seems like

I'm losing everything
I'm losing everything

Giving it all, the weight of the world
It's crashing, it's crashing into me
Falling apart 'cause everything burns
It's flashing, it's flashing in front of me

Inferno, inferno
Inferno, inferno
This fire, this fire is all I see

Why can't I just take a stand?
Help me, just take my hand
Understand I'm alone
Slowly sinkin' in sand
If I could just stop the blaze
Start to get through the haze
Let the rain fall down
And wash away again
I can start again

Giving it all, the weight of the world
It's crashing, it's crashing into me
Falling apart 'cause everything burns
It's flashing, it's flashing in front of me

Inferno, inferno
Inferno, inferno
'Cause fire, 'cause fire is all I see

Giving it all, the weight of the world
It's crashing, it's crashing into me
Falling apart 'cause everything burns
It's flashing, it's flashing in front of me

Inferno, inferno
Inferno, inferno
'Cause fire is all I see
'Cause fire is all I see
'Cause fire is all I see
