

Let The Chaos Reign

Pop Evil

This is my time, enough about you
I'm on the outside, trying to lift this weight
Gonna take back control
And now I'm up against the wall
I'm about to break, buckle up, just me and you
Hands full of blood, can't be undone, it's fate
If you want something to believe in
Let the angels fall from the sun

Step up to me, now get out of my face
Keep up with you, I'll do whatever it takes
C'mon
It's meant to be, let me outta my cage
C'mon
Let the Chaos Reign

So run your mouth now, I'll make you disappear
Let me outta this cell, I'll unleash this rage
Gonna take back what you stole
I'm ready to attack like a wolf to sheep
About time, gonna cut through
The nightmares begun, I won't let you sleep
If you want something to believe in
Let the angels fall from the sun

Step up to me, now get out of my face
Keep up with you, I'll do whatever it takes
C'mon
It's meant to be, let me outta my cage
C'mon
Let the Chaos Reign

(Go)

C'mon
