

Waking Lions

Pop Evil

Is this better, tell me there's a better way
I'm not afraid, I'm not gonna hide from the Vultures above, serpents below
They wanna lay me to rest, but I won't go
Yeah

Is it better to die than live another day?
I'm not afraid, I'm not gonna run from the Scars held within, burning the skin
They wanna lay me to rest, but I won't go
Yeah, I won't go

I wanna stand up, a hundred feet tall
'Cause fear will never lead my way
I'm ready to run, a hundred miles strong
I will never be the same
Waking the lions in me
I'm waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me

Beneath the ash I'm dying 'til I'll rise again
I'm not afraid, I'm not gonna stop till
I'll break down this cage, escape from these chains
You'll never silence my voice, no, I won't go
No, I won't go

I wanna stand up, a hundred feet tall
'Cause fear will never lead my way
I'm ready to run, a hundred miles strong
I will never be the same
Waking the lions in me
I'm waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me

For way too long
I slept inside the dark
But now I rise
It's time to make a mark
Waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me

I wanna stand up, a hundred feet tall
'Cause fear will never lead my way
I'm ready to run, a hundred miles strong
I will never be the same

I wanna stand up, a hundred feet tall
'Cause fear will never lead my way
I'm ready to run, a hundred miles strong
I will never be the same
Waking the lions in me
I'm waking the lions in me
Waking the lions in me

I'm waking the lions in me
