

Monster

Portugal. The Man

Monster, cocaine
Mix this inhaled vacuum
Exhale
Through lips like lightning stutter and stir
We'll soon die
Placing air balloons between our toes

Monster, cocaine
Mix this inhaled vacuum
Exhale
Through lips like lightning stutter and stir
We'll soon die
Placing air balloons between our toes

Sets off
Slower than missiles
We'll open up the room with
Remember bleak fatigue
Rebuild the watch
The foundation's ordinary concrete
Buried in the ground

Heaven's just in our conscience
Wires, pretenders, construes on you
Like coax holes
Auto reload

Monster, cocaine
Mix this inhaled vacuum
Exhale
Through lips like lightning stutter and stir
We'll soon die
Placing air balloons between our toes
Exhale
Exhale
Exhale
Exhale
Exhale
Exhale
Exhale
Your life into this paper sack

Crashing and creasing
And we will know
Just what it is and what it will be

On bridge teeth
Crafted ties
And we will know
Just what it is and what it will be

Pressure's been pressing
And we will know
Just what it is and what it will be

Circles the rapids
And we will know

Just what it is and what it will be
