

Raise Your Fist, Evangelist

Powerwolf

We wait for the call to break down the wall and fight for the end of days
We conquer the land with the bible in hand
The glory of war and praise
Are you praying for the final grace?
With power and pride, and god on our side we follow the holy way
Stand and scream for all the world today
Raise your fist, evangelist!
Raise your fist, evangelist!
Ave mater dolorosa
Eos crucem lacrimosa
Ave mater dolorosa
Eos crucem lacrimosa
Get down the roar we march into war
We strike down the enemy
In triumph of Christ no pagan survives
To hell if you don't believe
We raise in the name of god
