

Cowboy Dreams

Prefab Sprout

Cowboy dreams
cowboy dreams
You give me cowboy dreams.

Love's a silver bullet that blows your world apart I wanna be remembered as an outlaw as the boy who stole your heart I wanna be the guy who wears the white hat
then rides across the plain I'm gonna be your enigmatic stranger honey, you are looking at your Shane.

Chorus:
Cowboy dreams
cowboy dreams
you give me cowboy dreams.

If ever you're in trouble, if ever you are down
I'm gonna be the hanging judge and sheriff I'm gonna ride your troubles out of town you're looking at a mountain, you're looking at the law you're looking at a six-gun legend fastest on the draw.

Chorus

Cowboy dreams
yippi-ay-a

I can make you happy, it's easier than it seems I'm gonna ambush at sundown
I'm gonna give you cowboy dreams.

Chorus

Cowboy dreams
yippi-ay-a

Love's a silver bullet that blows your world apart
I wanna have it written on my tombstone:
" Here lies the boy who stole your heart "
