

Just Like Lightning

It's been raining for awhile now,
but I know that it can't last too long.
Yes, I've been searching for a way out,
but I know that it can't be too far.

'Cause every time I feel the thunder, check the ground, I know I'll be alright.
'cause every time I see the wonder,
You blow my mind.

'Cause I am Yours.
I am Yours forever, Yours forever.
I've seen enough. It's Your love supplying me, just like lightning.
Just like lightning.
Just like lightning.

Let the music light up the night.
I can see it shining brighter now.
Never it knew a love like this before.
My whole world's like a kaleidoscope.

Shock me to the core, just like lightning. Shock me to the core
, to the core.
Shock me to the core, just like lightning. Shock me to the core
, to the core.
